Preparing for the 30th Anniversary of VACT has brought back so many memories. I remember how we began with the $125 we earned selling tickets for Battle of the Bands, how we grew from one show to two, added a fall show, a youth program that grew and grew, and finally a senior show. All the wonderful people who have been involved in all those years come to mind and my heart is warmed all over again. This show represents the last 10 years of shows. We celebrated with a similar show in 2002 and 2012 and audiences have loved it. We were able to cast most of the leads from the original shows, so that makes for a very strong cast! They love reprising their role and we love hearing them sing it again.

This was a huge project and wouldn't have been possible without all the dedicated people that contributed their time and talents. First, we need to thank the committee that chose the music to include in the Encore 2022. Thanks to Dale, Marie, Marsha, Sara Ward-Cassady, and Kenzie for that difficult job.

Bringing back the choreography from the original shows was a huge project; but thanks to Marsha and Kenzie, you will love seeing their success. Thanks for making everything look so polished.

Brett spent hours and hours finding and arranging the music. Then he taught 26 songs, played for all the rehearsals, and now you will see him playing in the combo! Great job, Brett, you are much appreciated.

Sara Pfantz and her crew Gail, Stephanie, Paula, Claire and Mary have gone above and beyond what I expected for costumes for the show. Thank so much for all your labors; it adds so much! And, of course, Sara Pfantz does double duty by also putting together this spectacular program. Another of her "above and beyond" contributions.

Thanks to Alex and Dusty for assembling the set for us. Although simple, it perfectly meets the needs of this show. The Tech Team, Dale and Steve, (father and son) always make the show look and sound perfect. Your lights and sound talents are so appreciated by VACT for so many years! Thanks to Tom for his help with the pit and sound. Paul gets back in the Stage Manager role after a long break from VACT. Welcome back and thanks for your help. Many thanks to Lynn for doing the tickets and to Sarah Lederer for doing all the front of house duties. Thanks to you both for getting the "seats in the seats"!

To even TRY to list all the things Sara Ward-Cassady has done as the producer of the show would be impossible! She has touched every step along the difficult journey of putting a show like this together and I can't thank her enough! Anyone would be lucky to have her organizing their show, I certainly am.

If you saw the original shows and this show brings back fond memories or you are seeing it for the first time, I'm sure you will appreciate all the work the production team has done to make this Encore so much fun!
